

A black and white photograph of a group of World War I veterans. They are standing in several rows in front of a brick building with arched windows. The veterans are wearing standard military uniforms of the era, including tunics, breeches, and puttees. Many are wearing campaign hats. The photograph has a slightly aged appearance with some wear and tear, particularly a large crack on the left side. Handwritten text is visible on the image: 'Pierre Cherasse' is written in the upper center, and 'Les Anciens de la 19' is written in a banner at the bottom. In the upper right corner, there is handwritten text that reads 'Grand Pere maitre'.
